INTRODUCTION

On the 348 rolls of this microfilm publication are reproduced the applications submitted for shares of the money that was appropriated for the Eastern Cherokee Indians by the Congress on June 30, 1906. The Eastern Cherokee applications, August 29, 1906-May 26, 1909, are part of the Guion Miller Enrollment Records that are among the records of the U.S. Court of Claims. This publication also includes a general index to Eastern Cherokee applications (two vols.).

History

Before the U.S. Court of Claims was established in 1855 there was no procedure by which claims arising against the U.S. Government could be enforced by suit. Consideration of claims was provided for when the Treasury Department was established in 1789; later acts of the Congress authorized the Department to settle all claims by or against the Government. If a claim was rejected by the Treasury Department, the claimant's only course of action was to appeal directly to the Congress. Petitions to that body for relief had become so numerous by the middle of the 19th century that the Congress was beginning to find it impossible to make the proper and necessary investigations for actions on the claims.

The U.S. Court of Claims was established by an act of February 24, 1855, to hear claims against the United States including those referred to the court by the Congress, based on any law of the Congress, any regulation of an executive department, or any contract with the Government, whether explicit or implied. Under this act the court served only as a factfinding agency, and its conclusions were submitted to the Congress for approval and for the granting of awards. In 1863 the Congress enlarged the court's jurisdiction and gave it authority to render judgments against the Government, with the right of appeal to the Supreme Court. An act of 1925 abolished appeals from the Court of Claims to the Supreme Court and substituted writs of certiorari.

An act approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat. 726), gave the Court of Claims jurisdiction over any claim arising under treaty stipulations that the Cherokee Tribe, or any band thereof, might have against the United States and over any claims that the United States might have against any Cherokee Tribe or band. Suit for such a claim was to be instituted within 2 years after the act was approved. As a result, three suits were brought before the court concerning grievances arising out of the treaties:

On May 18, 1905, the court decided in favor of the Eastern Cherokees and instructed the Secretary of the Interior to identify the persons entitled to participate in the distribution of funds for payment of the claims. On June 30, 1906, the Congress appropriated more than $1 million for this purpose. The task of compiling a roll of eligible persons was begun by Guion Miller, special agent of the Interior Department. In a decree of April 29, 1907, the court (1) vacated that part of its earlier decision that had given the Secretary of the Interior responsibility for determining the eligibility of claimants and (2) appointed Miller as a special commissioner of the Court of Claims.

The same decree also provided that the fund was to be distributed to all Eastern and Western Cherokee Indians who were alive on May 28, 1906, who could establish the fact that at the time of the treaties they were members of the Eastern Cherokee Tribe or were descendants of such persons, and that they had not been affiliated with any tribe of Indians other than the Eastern Cherokee or the Cherokee Nation. The decree further provided that claimants should already have applications on file with the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, or should file such applications with the special commissioner of the Court of Claims on or before August 31, 1907. Additionally, applications for minors and persons of unsound mind were to be filed by their parents or persons having their care and custody, and applications for persons who had died after May 28, 1906, were to be filed by their children or legal representatives.

In his report of May 28, 1909, Miller stated that 45,847 separate applications had been filed, representing a total of about 90,000 individual claimants, 30,254 of whom were enrolled as entitled to share in the fund--3,203 residing east and 27,051 residing west of the Mississippi River. On June 10, 1909, the court confirmed and approved the roll, submitted by Miller in his report, of Eastern Cherokees who were entitled to a share of the fund except "so much as shall be expected (excepted) to on or before August 30, 1909." After the exceptions had been filed and investigated, Miller submitted a supplemental report and roll to the court on January 5, 1910. In this report he stated that about 11,750 exceptions had been made, that the names of 610 persons (238 east and 372 west of the Mississippi) had been added to the roll, and that the names of 44 persons (5 east and 39 west of the Mississippi) had been stricken from the roll because clerical errors in enrollment had been discovered. Thus the final figure on the total number of persons entitled to share in the fund was 30,820, of which 3,436 persons resided east and 27,384 resided west of the Mississippi River. On March 15, 1910, the court finally decreed that the rolls be approved and that, after certain deductions for expenditures, payments were to be made equally among the Eastern Cherokees who were enrolled. The court also authorized the Secretary of the Treasury to issue a warrant in favor of each person.

In certifying the eligibility of the Cherokees, Miller used earlier census lists and rolls that had been made of the Cherokees by Hester, Chapman, Drennen, and others between 1835 and 1884. Copies of some of these rolls and the indexes to them are filed with the Miller records (filmed as M685). Other enrollment records used by Miller are among the classified subject files of the Bureau and are designated as "33931-11-053 Cherokee Nation."

Records

The applications contain sworn evidences of identity and were filed with the Interior Department's Office of Indian Affairs until April 29, 1907 (the last application was No. 22268), after which the applications were filed directly with the court. The application required each claimant to state fully his or her English and Indian names, residence, age, place of birth, name of husband or wife, name of tribe, and names of children. It further required the English and Indian names of the claimant's parents and grandparents, place of their birth, place of their residence in 1851 if they were living at that time, dates of their death, and a statement as to whether any of them had ever before been enrolled as Indians for annuities or other benefits and, if so, with what tribe. Each claimant was also to furnish the names of all brothers and sisters, with their ages and residences, and the names and residences of all uncles and aunts. Applications were required to be made under oath and to be supported by affidavits of two witnesses who were well acquainted with the applicant. With each application is a card showing final action taken and the reasons therefore. Filed with many of the applications are inquiries concerning the status of the cases, requests for further evidence, protests about unfavorable actions, form letters that had been sent by the special commissioner to the applicants as notices of rejection of their applications and returned by the Post Office Department as unclaimed, affidavits and statements of witnesses, powers of attorney, and last wills and testaments. The applications are arranged by the number assigned at the time the application was received. There are some gaps in the application numbers; these are explained on insert sheets at the appropriate places on the film. The index is arranged alphabetically by name (either English or Indian) of claimant.

Many of the files contain a cross-reference card to other applications. This cross-reference card often refers to the EX file, the report on exceptions filed by Miller on January 5, 1910.

Cherokee are entitled to a share in this land. I think I have no opinion to make. As I understand it all depends on the decision of the Department in the distribution of the land.
I should like to see what it would be if we spent it in other children but a number of them are the one of the. I would like to know what the result is. I am not sure of it.

Madam:

Replying to your letter of November 6, 1909, you are advised that you are enrolled for participation in the Eastern Cherokee fund, and your grandchild, Lizey, is enrolled with you. Your son, Ned Blossom, is also enrolled.

It does not appear from our records that your other son, William Blossom, ever filed an application. As you state he is dead, it is probable that he was not living on May 28, 1909, and therefore would not have been entitled to share.

The lease you inclosed in your letter is returned, herewith.

Sir:-

Replying to yours of the 23rd inst, SAF No. 5033, I beg to say that myself and my children are enrolled as Osage Indians, and are not on the Cherokee roll, and were not enrolled by the Dawes Commission.

In this letter I desire to say that I base my claim for myself and my children on the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States on the Eastern Cherokee case. I do not see anything in that decision which would deprive me of my inheritance because of the fact that I am on the Osage roll.

Yours truly,

Rogers belongs to. She was not enrolled by the Dawes Commission with the Cherokees, but retained her membership with the Osages.

Action: Reject.

Name Sarah A. L. Wallace and 4 children. Residence: Holtzouse, N. C.

Reasons:

It does not appear that any ancestor was enrolled either in 1835 or 1857. nor does it appear that any ancestor was party to the treaties of 1835-6 & 1846. Applicant's claim is based on G. W. Morgan and that name appears on the Roll of 1857. But it is evident that the G. W. Morgan so enrolled is not the one mentioned by applicant. He belongs to an entirely different family and his descendants have claims filed here. Wise. Test. 1608, 1609, 1609.

5050 The claim of applicants mother, <sup>Elizabeth Hargree Harrison</sup> through whom claim is made, was considered by the Secy of the Interior in 1857 under the Act of 1854 & was rejected, that is conclusive now.

Margaret Ann Wilson, after being first duly sworn, deposes and says:

I am 54 years of age; was born in Cherokee County, N.C., and have lived here all my life. I claim Indian descent through my mother's family. Her name was Sarah Morgan before she married my father, Wm. H. Henslee. She has been dead 22 or 24 years. She died in Cherokee County; was born in Monroe County, Tenn. Sarah Morgan was born June 15, 1817, according to a record in a family Bible which is now before the Commissioner. My mother claimed Indian but I never heard her say how much. She claimed Cherokee Indian blood. Her Indian blood came through my grandfather, George Washington Morgan. He died in Monroe County, Tenn., probably before my lifetime. My mother never received any Indian money but she did get some books. This was just after the war. The mixed bloods visited my mother in Tenn. I do not know if she visited them or not. She did not after she was married. I never heard my mother say anything about getting any money about 1851. I have heard my mother say our names were on the roll of 1855. I never heard her say anything about the Indians being moved east in 1838. She talked about her Indian blood often. She was recognized as a white woman although people knew she had Indian blood. I have heard my mother talk of my grandfather. She never told me that my grandfather, Geo. W. Morgan, was as much as a half breed Cherokee but he was possibly a quarter. I never heard anything about him getting any money but have heard of his being enrolled. I suppose in 1855. Two of my aunts went west. I think the aunt that went to the Territory was named Mary Hankford. I do not know anything about her. I have never heard anything from her. I do not think my grandfather ever went west. My mother lived in Cherokee County, N.C., in 1852. Bettie Wilson, 2325, was a descendant of my grandfather, J. W. Morgan, but I never knew her. James Henslee, 2731, is my nephew; Margaret S. Braden is another of my Tenn. relatives but do not know anything about her never having visited them. William H. Henslee is my brother.

Sarah A. I. Wallace, after being first duly sworn,

I am 41 years of age; live in Bethouse, Cherokee County, N.C. I claim my Indian blood through my mother, Elizabeth Harrison. I was born about five miles from here and have lived there all my life with the exception of two years in Monroe County, Tenn. My mother's maiden name was Elizabeth Henslee. My mother has been dead about 24 years to the best of my knowledge. She died in Clay County, N.C. She lived there several years before her death. She was born in Cherokee County to the best of my knowledge. I do not think she was very old when she died. My mother, Elizabeth Henslee was born March 30, 1841, which date is taken from a bible record now before the Commissioner in the handwriting of my grandfather. My mother's sister, Margaret Ann McGuire, No. 12200, who is here now, knows more about my mother's people than I do. My uncle, William Ross Henslee, is also here.

North Rome, Georgia.

Sir:-

Replying to your letter of April 9, 1907, you are advised that this Office is unable to say, at the present time, just when the fund arising from the judgment of the Court of Claims in favor of the Eastern Cherokees will be paid, or the amount each successful claimant will receive.

Your postage stamp is returned herewith.

Very respectfully,

Chief Clerk.

App. #5052.

August 12, 1907.

Austrilla Callahan,
North Rome,
Georgia.

Sir:-

Replying to your letter of August 1, 1907, you are advised that the applications for participation in the Eastern Cherokee fund have not been taken up for final consideration, as the Court of Claims in its order of April 29, 1907, has extended the time for the filing of applications to August 31, 1907, and until the applications have all been filed it will be impossible to give final consideration to any of them, or to state how much each successful claimant will receive.

As there are already over 33,000 applications on file and the claimants are widely scattered through the United States it will necessarily take considerable time to have all of these cases adjudicated, and until they are so determined no money can be distributed.

If there is any further information required in connection with your application you will be notified.

Very respectfully,

MLC.

Special Commissioner.

Dear Sir:

Your communication to Lucinda Burns was turned over to me this morning for reply. if you please in the future I would be glad you would address me direct as I have all of her and her children right to look after, as there is scarcely one of them that can write there own name and they have me to look after it for them. I note you say that neither of the parties through which she came.

her right appear on the rolls of 1885 or 1887.
I beg to say she said. her Parents always told her that they wer on the rolls she was to young at the time not being Born in 1835 and was only 6 or 7 years old

I will say. she said the reason for her parents not being on the <sup>Roll</sup> also her self was that they did not come west at all and would not come. but after she grew up to woman hood she got married and the man she married Shelley. came west and after he died she married Bivans. and they lived in Arkansas. and she said she talked of going up in the Cherokee Nation and get on the roll. But she had no education and her present husband cant write nor read and she just followed him where ever he went. but after moving to Howe and talking to various ones. she came to me to see if I thought she could get a right and I told her I was quite sure she could if she could prove she was a Eastern Cherokee which she claims to be and which I even some of her grand children look like at least '2 Blood Cherokee, you asked also, if her parents or Grandparents, was ether Slaves. She said if they ever was, she does not

I lived for a while by a woman by the name of Betsy, but I was never married to her. High Guess is my son but he is living with his grandfather, Calling or Cawlin Raven, P. O. Zena, Okla. High's mother enrolled him with the Daws Commission and I do not know under what name he was enrolled. I am a full-blood. I was enrolled by the Daws Commission under the name of George Guess. I was not living with any woman at the time I was enrolled by the Daws Commission. I do not know what my Daws Commission number is. I haven't it with me. I think that at the time High's mother had him enrolled she was going by the name of Shot-Pouch.
